

I am very please with the New Jersey 'Do Not Call' law and I do not wish to have it repealed. My wife and I are both employed full time and need to be avaliable to our 2 children in the evenings and free from disruptions caused by relentless telemarketers.